

2022 Sep. 14

EU-Taiwan 歐盟氣候行動週 Youth Climate Forum: Building a Greener Future

EU-Taiwan Youth Climate Forum: Building a Greener Future

Tentative Agenda

Liang Kuo Shu International Conference Hall, College of Social Sciences, National Taiwan University

Format: Hybrid event

Hosts: European Economic and Trade Office, EU Centre in Taiwan, College of Social Sciences, NTU, ECSA, Taiwan

Wednesday, 14 September 2022

2022 is the European Year of Youth, shining a light on the importance of youth to build a better and greener future.

13:00-13:20	Registration
13:20-13:35	Opening Remarks <ul style="list-style-type: none">· Filip Grzegorzewski, Head of EETO· David Steinke, Head of Economic and Cultural Office of the Czech Republic in Taipei (EU Presidency)· Tzi-Chin Chang, EPA Minister (TBC)
13:35-13:40	VIP Group Photo
13:40-14:10	Keynote speech
14:10-15:40	Climate Policy Dialogue: Shining a light on youth to build a greener future Q&A This session will give a voice to youth fighting climate change both in the EU and in Taiwan, exchanging on the challenges and opportunities.
15:40-15:55	Tea Break
15:55-17:10	Pitching Sessions: Discover Green Jobs Q&A The transition to a decarbonised economy is not only essential to halting climate change, but is also a driver of economic growth with the potential to create millions of green jobs. Speakers with different professional background to present their "green job" and the opportunities for the next generation.
17:10-18:00	Break-out rooms session Participants will have the opportunity to discuss in small groups with the different sectors of "green jobs".
18:00-18:10	Closing Remarks

Registration link: <https://forms.gle/Fhv9VDR6swgCYk5g8>